Alchemy Yoga Retreat

I have run 4 yoga retreats with friends since 2023 and have been building up the courage to go solo. And the time has come. I have booked the most beautiful venue in the foothills of the Atlas Mountains in Morocco.

Babzouini – meaning ‘beautiful door’ is a charming venue committed to human equilibrium, sustainability and community impact. It is a peaceful and unique yoga retreat centre built in traditional Moroccan style, located at the foot of the Atlas Mountains, and I fell in love with it as soon as I discovered it.

I can attest for the deep sense of transformation and connection that a retreat can provide: being in a space where we are held gives us permission to release and let go, to expand and to reflect.

We will be working with yoga, restorative, somatic and creative practices to dive deeper into our bodies, subconscious minds, dreams and desires, shadows and fears. And we will have loads of time to connect to self and each other, to play, to learn and to grow.
